

SOCIETY

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane was christened yesterday at noon at St. Augustine's chapel, Waikiki, by Father Valentin. The little one was christened Alice Amelia Kuahelani Macfarlane, the first name being for the mother, the second for Mrs. Fred. W. Macfarlane and the third for Mrs. Samuel Parker. Miss Alice Macfarlane and Mr. Sonny Macfarlane stood sponsor for the little one.

Mrs. Arthur Rice, who was formerly Miss Bessie Forest, is home from Honolulu and will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Stevens, for several months. Mrs. Rice was the guest of the A. V. Mendenhalls at a theater party one evening recently. Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall and Master Edwin expect to go to Santa Clara soon.—Chronicle.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander is expecting her daughter, Mrs. John Waterhouse, to spend the summer with her. The Waterhouses have a charming home in Honolulu and also a very pretty country house near there.—Chronicle.

After a pleasant home visit for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers, Mr. Williams Lewers will depart for the Coast on the Sonoma and will go East to rehearse for "The Lion and the Mouse" which is to be given a New York presentation this fall.

Miss Charlotte Hall and Miss Florence Hall leave shortly for Boston, where the latter will take a special course in wood-working.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gaines returned yesterday from Haleiwa where they spent a week.

Miss May Schweitzer will be married to Lieut. Rowland Case, 10th Infantry, U. S. A., sometime this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Schweitzer and the Misses May and Louie Schweitzer will reside in Berkeley in the near future.

The Misses Robertson were hostesses at a Rose luncheon on Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Alderson (formerly Cordelia Bishop) leave this week for a brief rest at the country home of the Edgar Bishops, among the beautiful redwoods of Ben Lomond. Mr. Bishop's sister, Mrs. William Allen, of Honolulu, who has been visiting them in Oakland, will also be their guest at Ben Lomond. Upon her return she will visit Dr. and Mrs. Alderson in their new home on Ashbury street.

Lieutenant Clarence K. Lyman, 4th Cavalry, who arrived on the Sherman, is the first officer of Hawaiian origin to be commissioned an officer in the United States Army, he being the first appointed to West Point from Hawaii, class 1905.—Philippines Gossip.

The wedding of Captain C. F. Armstrong, 21st Infantry, and Miss Margaret Elizabeth Tutt, of Los Angeles, was solemnized Sunday evening, June 10, at the Episcopal Cathedral, Rev. Mercer G. Johnston officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper, followed by a largely attended reception, was given at the Army and Navy Club.—Philippines Gossip.

One of the merriest yachting parties on the bay was given recently by Edward Hill and his sister, Miss Isabelle Hill. Mr. Hill's yacht, the Emerald, is a very large one and has an unusually romantic history. It has not only made several transpacific trips, but was—before Mr. Hill's ownership, of course—a smuggler, and stories of the adventures in which it has taken part would fill columns.—Chronicle.

Among the latest arrivals at the Moana Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. C. Taylor of Texarkana, Texas. They are Southerners, Mr. Taylor coming from the Louisiana Taylors. Mr. George Bliss of Erie, Pa., is here for a visit with his father, Mr. John Bliss. On Wednesday he gave a luncheon for several of his steamer acquaintances.

Sir Joseph Ward, the new Premier of New Zealand, gave a luncheon at the Moana on Wednesday, while the Sierra was in port. Sir Joseph's party is a numerous one, he being accompanied home by Lady Ward, Miss Ward, Mr. Ward and his secretary. Manager Hertsche secured Sir Joseph's name in his private autograph book. And by the way that book is being filled with famous names. A delicious souvenir of Sir Joseph's visit to Honolulu was a large basketful of tropical fruits, presented by Mr. Holmes.

On Sunday evening a number of small dinner parties were given at the Moana Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C.

Deering entertained for a quartet of Scotland's brave lads. Mrs. Berg, now Mrs. Kristian Gjerdrum, had dinner for eight. The Moana quintet club played throughout the evening.

Miss Caroline Bryant, formerly of Honolulu, and Mr. James Henry Russell were married in San Francisco June 30 by Rev. F. S. Ford.

Miss Katherine L. Woodford of San Diego is spending her vacation with her uncle, Mr. F. F. Fyler. Miss Woodford is a graduate of Berkeley.

Mrs. E. H. Spoor of Redlands, California, formerly Miss Dale of Oahu College, is visiting Mrs. A. Francis Judd.

Miss Ivy Richardson returned from Hilo yesterday. It is possible her mother, Mrs. J. L. Richardson, will take a house here and reside for a few months.

Reverend E. H. Fenton-Smith of Kohala was a Kinau passenger on Saturday.

An elaborate Chinese dinner was given Saturday evening for the Misses Robertson.

At noon on Tuesday at "Rosebank," the delightful home of Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer in Nuuanu Valley, Mrs. Adele Folkers Berg became the bride of Mr. Kristian Gjerdrum. The knot was tied by Rev. Henry Parker of Kawaiahao church in the midst of floral decorations of ravishing beauty. Seldom have Easter lilies, malle, smilax, carnations and palms been used with such exquisite taste at a wedding for decorations.

To the strains of Lohengrin played by Miss Elsa Schaefer the wedding party entered the drawing room. Miss Irmgard Schaefer, maid of honor, preceded the party. She was gowned in white and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and maidenhair ferns tied with pink ribbons. The bride entered on the arm of Mr. Schaefer. She looked dainty in a handsome gown of white silk and lace, carrying a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The groom met the bride with his best man, Mr. J. W. Waldron and the knot tied, the music of Mendelssohn wedding march floated softly upon the blossomscented air. The bridal party and guests then repaired to the dining-room where the health of the bride and groom was drunk in the famous decoration brewed by Mr. Schaefer. Later the couple went to Waialua and on Thursday sailed in the Helene for Kohala, their future home. The couple received many costly gifts. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lanz, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Gerit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. A. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer, the Misses Schaefer.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Tenney Peck entertained at dinner for Mrs. Macauley.

Mr. William Lanz gave a stage dinner on Monday evening in honor of Mr. Kristian Gjerdrum, whose marriage to Mrs. Berg took place the following day. Other guests present were Messrs. W. F. Pfothner, Dr. Cooper, A. J. Campbell, F. W. Kiehn, J. W. Waldron, Whitney, George Rodlek, C. S. Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross of San Francisco are at the Moana Hotel and are enjoying the hospitality of Honolulu.

Mrs. Macauley, a fair visitor, was the guest of honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne at a dinner given at their Thurston street residence on Friday evening. Golden Shower blossoms and maidenhair ferns were used artistically as table garnishments. Other guests were Captain and Mrs. Slattery, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Hedemann, Mr. A. S. Cleghorn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett gave a surprise party on Tuesday for their son Herbert. Following dancing a delicious supper was served at 11.

Mrs. Frances Macauley is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tenney Peck.

Mrs. Charles B. Cooper and children will spend the remainder of summer at the Cooper's Tantalus bungalow.

Miss Madge McCandless, who has just returned from the school she has been attending at Washington, D. C., was the guest of honor on Thursday evening at a dance and supper given by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCandless.

Mr. E. D. Tenney has gone to the Volcano House to join Mrs. Tenney and children.

Although the transport Logan arrived and departed Friday before sundown and there were no officers with ladies from the troopship to attend the dance at the Seaside Hotel planned by Manager Church, yet a crowd of town-folk went out there had a nice little time of their own. For this reason Manager Church will hereafter after announcing a "transport" dance hold

JAMES W. ROBERTSON, AS CHAMBERLAIN UNDER KING KALAKAUA.

Today is the thirtieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. James W. Robertson, formerly a Chamberlain under King Kalakaua, and now of Brewer & Co., to Miss Rose Cleghorn. The event was celebrated July 22, 1876, at the home of Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, Waikiki. There was a large assemblage present on that occasion, Rev. Alexander Mackintosh performing the ceremony. The Hawaiian Band played during the evening and members of the royal family and the Diplomatic Corps were in attendance.

It whether the boat stays in port overnight or not. He also plans to give a monthly dance, some time about the full of the moon when Waikiki beach is most charming.

Mr. Norman Watkins gave a home dinner at the Seaside Hotel last evening for eight of his close friends. The dinner was served in the private dining room, carnations and malle being used to decorate the table. The menu was a novelty.

Miss Maud Paty and Mr. K. J. Stewart Sharp were married on Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Paty, Alakea street, Rev. J. W. Wadman performed the ceremony. Miss May Paty was the bridesmaid and Mr. R. A. Robbins served the groom as best man.

Mrs. Ivers gave an engagement dinner for Miss Nellie White and Dr. Brinkerhoff on Wednesday evening.

Judge and Mrs. Arthur Wilder departed on the S. S. Sierra for New Zealand where they will spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Benson plan to leave Honolulu permanently and may sail this coming week for the mainland. Mrs. Benson is one of the popular young matrons of society.

At the Waikiki residence of Mrs. Bickerton Miss Hilda Walker of Sydney, N. S. W., became the bride of Mr. V. A. Vetteson of Walluku, Maui, on Thursday at high noon. Rt. Rev. Bishop Restarick officiated. The bride was given away by her mother. The couple departed on the steamer Helene for Maui, where they will make their future home.

Manager and Mrs. Goodale of Waialua plantation entertained during the week the Misses Linda and Elsie Schaefer and their guest Miss Virginia McKinney.

To spend a few weeks at Banff Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Mays will depart for Vancouver on the S. S. Maheno.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Afong will occupy the Afong mansion on Nuuanu Avenue as their permanent home. Mrs. Julia Afong is completing a new residence at her country place in Nuuanu Valley where she will reside in future.

Mrs. W. F. Pfothner has gone to Kona to spend a few weeks. She was accompanied by her family.

Mrs. Bernice Parke, and brother, Mr. William C. Parke may return from their Oriental trip on the next steamer from Yokohama.

Mrs. George Rodlek, who is to sail for the Coast this week, accompanied by her little daughter and her sister, Miss Tillie Neumann, was the guest of honor Thursday at a pretty luncheon given by Mrs. F. W. Kiehn. Golden Shower blossoms were the table garnishments. The guests: Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. Charles T. Wilder, Mrs.

Wahiawa Today

The Oahu Railway Co. will run special excursions to Wahiawa, the fruit-growing district of the Territory, this afternoon. Train will leave Honolulu at 1:45 p. m., and arrive at Wahiawa at 3:10 and leave there at 4:30 p. m., arriving at Honolulu at 5:45 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be $1.50.

This will be a great treat as the road is through a section of the country which for grandeur cannot be excelled. The low price of the tickets should induce a large number of persons to accept the opportunity to inspect the newly opened country.

Regular train service to and from Wahiawa will begin at 9:15 a. m., Monday July 23d.

Oahu Railway & Land Company.

A. J. Campbell, Mrs. Schaefer, Miss Cordelia Walker, Miss Neumann.

"About the best advice that I ever had was given me once by an old fellow who took care of the furnace in my house," said a wine lover. "There was a cask of cheap wine in the cellar, the contents of which had mysteriously grown less. 'How can I stop them from stealing that wine?' I asked the furnace man. 'That's easy enough, sor,' said he, 'just put a cask of good wine alongside of it.'"

Get Pure Drugs.

There is a difference between pure and impure drugs. Has it ever occurred to you that it is safer to get the best rather than something "just as good?" Our drugs will stand all tests—so will our methods. People deal with us year after year because they get satisfaction, they realize that "substitution" does not appear among our methods of business and that they can rely upon the statements of our clerks.

If we have not had any part of your trade in the past, let us suggest that you begin tomorrow. We have everything any other drug firm has and more.

CALENDAR THAT STIRRED PITTSBURG SOCIETY.

This quaint picture, "Beauty and the Beast," adorns a calendar issued by an enterprising sausage dealer in Pittsburg. The attractive young person with her chin on the head of the bear is Mrs. Harry Thaw, formerly Evelyn Nesbit, artists' model. Her mother-in-law and her friends were deeply shocked when they saw the picture of the pretty, young matron used to advertise such plebeian works of art as sausages, and every copy of the calendar has been bought up and suppressed.
